

Please log my complaint regarding Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

I believe that this action is a clear
example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I recognize that
knowing more about
the presidential candidates benefits
the public; however,
I do not see that
smear campaigns and
partisan
broadcasting serves
us in any way.

When large companies
control the
airwaves, the
viewing public gets more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. It's more important that we
see real people from
our own communities
and more substantive
news about issues
that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. Please
rethink the license
renewal process.

Sincerely yours,
Jen Cellio Miller
